MANUFACTURING & INDUSTRIAL • FTL LOGISTICS PROPOSAL

Your Production Line Shouldn't Wait on Freight

Kumar, Nagesh runs on tight production and dispatch schedules — raw material inbound and finished goods outbound have to move on time, every time. That is exactly the job Best Roadways' owned-first fleet of 800+ trucks does every day. This is a proposal to do it for Kumar, Nagesh.

01

Plant-to-Site FTL

Dedicated capacity from your plants to sites and depots nationwide — lashed, protected, sequenced to your schedule.

02

Growth-Ready Capacity

As your production ramps up, our owned-first fleet scales lane-by-lane with your dispatch volumes — no spot-market scramble.

03

Export & Inbound Legs

Road corridors for your export book, plus inbound raw material movements to plants, backed by bonded warehousing at JNPT.

SCOPE OF SERVICES

- Industrial & project cargo FTL — 6W to 22W
- Plant outbound, pan-India
- Site-timed deliveries against production schedules
- Export corridors on request
- Inbound raw material legs

WHY BEST ROADWAYS

- Owned-first fleet of 800+ trucks — capacity that scales with your ramp-up
- 65+ branches for deep regional lane coverage
- 40 years of industrial and manufacturing-sector freight
- Single point of accountability from indent to POD

On-time is the brand: a production schedule means nothing if inputs or outputs are late. A carrier that delivers to your sequence protects the promise you sell to your customers.

PROVEN IN YOUR SECTOR

Best Roadways moves freight for Owens-Corning, Asahi India Glass, Jindal Aluminium, Sika and Fosroc — construction and industrial-material freight delivered on sequence.

Start with one plant-to-site corridor. Give us one lane. We'll prove it.

Prepared for Sulzer at Kumar, Nagesh — happy to walk through any of this on a short call.
